

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 901-10-03 Valid reasons for accessing confidential person information.

Effective: October 12, 2015

Pursuant to the requirements of division (B)(2) of section 1347.15 of the Revised Code, this rule contains a list of valid reasons, directly related to the department's exercise of its powers or duties, for which only employees of the department may access confidential personal information (CPI) regardless of whether the personal information system is a manual system or computer system. Performing the following functions constitute valid reasons for authorized employees of the department to access confidential personal information:

- (A) Responding to a public records request;
- (B) Responding to a request from an individual for the list of CPI the department maintains on that individual;
- (C) Administering a constitutional provision or duty;
- (D) Administering a statutory provision or duty;
- (E) Administering an administrative rule provision or duty;
- (F) Complying with any state or federal program requirements;
- (G) Processing or payment of claims or otherwise administering a program with individual participants or beneficiaries;
- (H) Auditing purposes;
- (I) Licensure, permitting, or registration processes;
- (J) Investigation or law enforcement purposes;

(K) Administrative hearings;

(L) Litigation, complying with an order of the court, or subpoena;

(M) Human resource matters (e.g., hiring, promotion, demotion, discharge, salary/compensation issues, leave requests/issues, time card approvals/issues);

(N) Complying with an executive order or policy;

(O) Complying with an department policy or a state administrative policy issued by the department of administrative services, the office of budget and management or other similar state department; or

(P) Complying with a collective bargaining agreement provision.
