

Ohio Revised Code

Section 1302.73 Excuse by failure of presupposed conditions - UCC 2-615.

Effective: July 1, 1962

Legislation: Senate Bill 5 - 104th General Assembly

Except so far as a seller may have assumed a greater obligation and subject to section 1302.72 of the Revised Code on substituted performance:

(A) Delay in delivery or non-delivery in whole or in part by a seller who complies with divisions (B) and (C) of this section is not a breach of his duty under a contract for sale if performance as agreed has been made impracticable by the occurrence of a contingency the non-occurrence of which was a basic assumption on which the contract was made or by compliance in good faith with any applicable foreign or domestic governmental regulation or order whether or not it later proves to be invalid.

(B) Where the causes mentioned in division (A) of this section affect only a part of the seller's capacity to perform, he must allocate production and deliveries among his customers but may at his option include regular customers not then under contract as well as his own requirements for further manufacture. He may so allocate in any manner which is fair and reasonable.

(C) The seller must notify the buyer seasonably that there will be delay or non-delivery and, when allocation is required under division (B) of this section, of the estimated quota thus made available for the buyer.
