Effective: July 1, 2001

Legislation: Senate Bill 74 - 124th General Assembly

(A) Except as otherwise provided in division (B) of this section, for purposes of determining the rights of creditors of, and purchasers for value of goods from, a consignee, while the goods are in the possession of the consignee, the consignee is deemed to have rights and title to the goods identical to those the consignor had or had power to transfer.

(B) For purposes of determining the rights of a creditor of a consignee, law other than this chapter determines the rights and title of a consignee while goods are in the consignee's possession if, under sections 1309.301 to 1309.342 of the Revised Code, a perfected security interest held by the consignor would have priority over the rights of the creditor.
