

Ohio Revised Code

Section 1321.673 Evading consumer installment loan requirements.

Effective: September 12, 2017

Legislation: Senate Bill 24 - 132nd General Assembly

No licensee shall conduct the business of making loans under sections 1321.62 to 1321.702 of the Revised Code in any office, room, or place of business in which any other business is solicited or engaged in, or in association or conjunction with any other such business, if the superintendent of financial institutions finds, pursuant to a hearing conducted in accordance with Chapter 119. of the Revised Code, that the other business is of such a nature that the conduct tends to conceal evasion of sections 1321.62 to 1321.702 of the Revised Code, and orders the licensee in writing to desist from the conduct.
