

Ohio Revised Code

Section 1782.12 Petition for execution of certificate.

Effective: July 1, 1994

Legislation: Senate Bill 74 - 120th General Assembly

If a person who is required by section 1782.11 of the Revised Code to execute any certificate fails or refuses to do so, any other person who is adversely affected by the failure or refusal may petition the court of common pleas to direct the execution of the certificate.

If the court finds that it is proper for the certificate to be executed and that any person so designated failed or refused to execute the certificate, it shall order the secretary of state to record an appropriate certificate.
