

Ohio Revised Code Section 1907.44 Conclusiveness of judgment.

Effective: March 17, 1987

Legislation: House Bill 158 - 116th General Assembly

Every judgment rendered on an award under section 1907.43 of the Revised Code, concludes the rights of the parties, unless it appears to the county court judge who rendered the judgment within ten days from its rendition, or to the court of appeals on appeal, that the award was obtained by fraud, corruption, or other undue means.
