

Ohio Revised Code

Section 1907.531 County court contracts for transportation of persons between jail and court.

Effective: March 23, 2018

Legislation: Senate Bill 8 - 132nd General Assembly

A county court may enter into contracts with a county sheriff whose territorial jurisdiction includes the court for the transportation of persons between the county jail and the county court. Each contract shall provide for the costs of providing transportation services from the county jail to the court and shall not apply to a period in excess of four years.
