

Ohio Revised Code

Section 2113.51 Property may be delivered to legatee.

Effective: January 13, 2012

Legislation: Senate Bill 124 - 129th General Assembly

The property of an estate that is specifically bequeathed may be delivered over to the legatee entitled to the property. The legatee shall secure its redelivery on demand to the executor or administrator. Otherwise, the property shall remain in the possession or under the control of the executor or administrator to be distributed or sold, as required by law and the condition of the estate.
