

Ohio Revised Code

Section 2127.02 Payment of debts.

Effective: January 13, 2012

Legislation: Senate Bill 124 - 129th General Assembly

---

As soon as an executor or administrator ascertains that the personal property in the possession or under the control of the executor or administrator is insufficient to pay all the debts of the decedent, together with the allowance for support to the surviving spouse, minor children, or surviving spouse and minor children of the decedent as provided in section 2106.13 of the Revised Code, and the costs of administering the estate, the executor or administrator shall commence a civil action in the probate court for authority to sell the decedent's real property.
