

Ohio Revised Code

Section 2701.19 Lien of judgment on appeal.

Effective: March 17, 1987

Legislation: House Bill 412 - 116th General Assembly

When the party against whom a judgment is rendered appeals his cause, the lien of the opposite party on the real estate of the appellant that was created by the judgment, shall not be removed or vacated. The real estate shall be bound in the same manner as if the appeal had not been taken, until final determination of the cause.
