

Ohio Revised Code

Section 2715.19 Property and garnishee bound.

Effective: March 13, 1986

Legislation: House Bill 442 - 116th General Assembly

An order of attachment shall bind the property attached from the time of service. A garnishee under this chapter shall be liable to the plaintiff in attachment for all property of the defendant in his hands, and money and credits due from him to the defendant, other than personal earnings, from the time he is served with the written notice required in section 2715.091 of the Revised Code. When property is attached in the hands of a consignee, lienholder, or secured party whose lien or security interest is then perfected by possession, his lien or security interest relative to the property shall not be affected by the attachment.
