

Ohio Revised Code

Section 2933.05 Warrant to keep the peace - disposition, bond, costs.

Effective: March 17, 1987

Legislation: House Bill 412 - 116th General Assembly

The municipal or county court judge or mayor sitting as the judge of a mayor's court, upon the appearance of the parties pursuant to sections 2933.02 to 2933.04 of the Revised Code, shall hear the witnesses under oath and do one of the following:

- (A) Discharge the accused, render judgment against the complainant for costs, and award execution for the costs;

- (B) Order the accused to enter into a bond of not less than fifty or more than five hundred dollars, with sufficient surety, to keep the peace and be of good behavior for such time as may be just, render judgment against him for costs, and award execution for the costs.

In default of such bond, the judge or mayor shall commit the accused to the county jail or other appropriate detention facility, until such order is complied with or he is discharged.
