

Ohio Revised Code

Section 2947.04 Effect of arresting judgment.

Effective: October 1, 1953

Legislation: House Bill 1 - 100th General Assembly

When a judgment is arrested, it places the defendant in a like position with respect to the prosecution as before the indictment or information was found. If, from the evidence at the trial, there is reason to believe that the defendant is guilty of an offense, the trial court shall order him to enter into a recognizance with sufficient surety for his appearance at the first day of the next term of such court, or the court having jurisdiction of the offense if within this state, otherwise the defendant shall be discharged.
