

Ohio Revised Code

Section 3115.708 Recognition and enforcement of registered convention support order.

Effective: January 1, 2016

Legislation: House Bill 64 - 131st General Assembly

- (A) Except as otherwise provided in division (B) of this section, a court of this state shall recognize and enforce a registered convention support order.
- (B) The following grounds are the only grounds on which a court of this state may refuse recognition and enforcement of a registered convention support order:
- (1) Recognition and enforcement of the order is manifestly incompatible with public policy, including the failure of the issuing tribunal to observe minimum standards of due process, which include notice and an opportunity to be heard.
  - (2) The issuing tribunal lacked personal jurisdiction consistent with section 3115.201 of the Revised Code.
  - (3) The order is not enforceable in the issuing country.
  - (4) The order was obtained by fraud in connection with a matter of procedure.
  - (5) A record transmitted in accordance with section 3115.706 of the Revised Code lacks authenticity or integrity.
  - (6) A proceeding between the same parties and having the same purpose is pending before a tribunal of this state and that proceeding was the first to be filed.
  - (7) The order is incompatible with a more recent support order involving the same parties and having the same purpose if the more recent support order is entitled to recognition and enforcement under this chapter in this state.

- (8) Payment, to the extent alleged arrears have been paid in whole or in part;
- (9) In a case in which the respondent neither appeared nor was represented in the proceeding in the issuing foreign country either of the following applies:
- (a) If the law of that country provides for prior notice of proceedings, the respondent did not have proper notice of the proceedings and an opportunity to be heard.
- (b) If the law of that country does not provide for prior notice of the proceedings, the respondent did not have proper notice of the order and an opportunity to be heard in a challenge or appeal on fact or law before a tribunal.
- (10) The order was made in violation of section 3115.711 of the Revised Code.
- (C) If a court of this state does not recognize a convention support order under division (B)(2), (4), or (9) of this section, both of the following apply:
- (1) The court may not dismiss the proceeding without allowing a reasonable time for a party to request the establishment of a new convention support order.
- (2) The support enforcement agency shall take all appropriate measures to request a child-support order for the obligee if the application for recognition and enforcement was received under section 3115.704 of the Revised Code.
