

Ohio Revised Code

Section 3343.07 Nonsectarian character of university.

Effective: November 5, 1965

Legislation: Senate Bill 395 - 106th General Assembly

No sectarian influence, direction, or interference in the management or conduct of the affairs or education of the Central state university shall be permitted by its board of trustees; but its benefits shall be open to all applicants of good moral character and within the limitations of age determined by the board.
