

Ohio Revised Code

Section 3501.04 Secretary of state is chief election officer.

Effective: October 1, 1953

Legislation: House Bill 1 - 100th General Assembly

The secretary of state is the chief election officer of the state, with such powers and duties relating to the registration of voters and the conduct of elections as are prescribed in Title XXXV of the Revised Code. He shall perform these duties, in addition to other duties imposed upon him by law, without additional compensation.
