

Ohio Revised Code

Section 3599.35 Proxies not to be given by party representatives - impersonation of representatives.

Effective: December 9, 1997

Legislation: Senate Bill 116 - 122nd General Assembly

No party committeeperson or party delegate or alternate chosen at an election, or a delegate or alternate appointed to a convention provided by law, shall give or issue a proxy or authority to another person to act or vote in that person's stead.

No person shall knowingly or fraudulently act or vote or attempt to impersonate, act, or vote in place of that committeeperson, delegate, or alternate.

Whoever violates this section is guilty of a misdemeanor of the first degree.
