

Ohio Revised Code

Section 3767.201 Destroying or removing barriers along limited access highways.

Effective: September 28, 1973

Legislation: House Bill 200 - 110th General Assembly

No person, firm or corporation shall cut, injure, remove, or destroy any fence or other barrier designed and erected to prevent traffic from entering or leaving a limited access highway without the permission of the director of transportation, except in a case of emergency where life or property is in danger. No person, firm, or corporation shall cause a vehicle of any character to enter or leave a limited access highway at any point other than intersections designated by the director for such purpose, except in a case of emergency where life or property is in danger.
