

Ohio Revised Code

Section 3909.10 Statements to be filed.

Effective: October 1, 1953

Legislation: House Bill 1 - 100th General Assembly

Every company, partnership, or association described in section 3909.09 of the Revised Code shall file a statement of its condition and affairs in the office of the superintendent of insurance, in the form and manner required for the annual statements of similar companies organized under the laws of this state, and annually, on the first day of January, or within sixty days thereafter, shall file with the superintendent a statement of all its affairs, in the manner and form required of similar companies of this state, except as to the requirements of schedule in division (N) of section 3907.19 of the Revised Code, which schedule shall be filed only when required by the superintendent for purposes of actual valuation, as provided by the laws of this state.

Such annual statement shall be accompanied by a supplementary statement, verified by the attorney or general agent of the company, partnership, or association in this state, giving a detailed description of the policies issued, and also those which have ceased to be in force, during the year, and the amount of premiums received, and the claims and taxes paid in this state and the United States, for the year ending on the thirty-first day of December. Such statement shall also contain a description of the investments of the company, partnership, or association in this country, and such other information as is required by the superintendent.
