

Ohio Revised Code

Section 4741.13 Limited license to practice veterinary medicine.

Effective: December 29, 2023

Legislation: Senate Bill 131

The state veterinary medical licensing board may issue a limited license to practice veterinary medicine to a nonresident individual whose sole professional capacity is with a veterinary academic institution or veterinary technology institution recognized by the board in accordance with rules the board adopts or with a government diagnostic laboratory. A person holding a limited license is authorized to engage in the practice of veterinary medicine only to the extent necessary to fulfill the person's employment or educational obligations as an instructor, researcher, diagnostician, intern, resident in a veterinary specialty, or graduate student.

The board may issue a limited license to a nonresident applicant who submits a completed application on a form prescribed by the board, pays the applicable fee prescribed in section 4741.17 of the Revised Code, and meets the criteria established by the board. The board shall not require an individual issued a limited license under this section to obtain a license under Chapter 4796. of the Revised Code.
