

Ohio Revised Code

Section 5123.451 Registry listing personnel and registered nurses holding valid certificates.

Effective: October 12, 2016

Legislation: House Bill 483, House Bill 158 - 131st General Assembly

The department of developmental disabilities shall establish and maintain a registry that lists all developmental disabilities personnel and registered nurses holding valid certificates issued under section 5123.45 of the Revised Code. The registry shall specify the type of certificate held and any limitations that apply to a certificate holder. The department shall make the information in the registry available to the public in computerized form or any other manner that provides continuous access to the information in the registry.
