

Ohio Revised Code

Section 5307.25 Costs and expenses to be equitably taxed.

Effective: October 1, 1953

Legislation: House Bill 1 - 100th General Assembly

Having regard to the interest of the parties, the benefit each may derive from a partition, and according to equity, the court of common pleas shall tax the costs and expenses which accrue in the action, including reasonable counsel fees, which must be paid to plaintiff's counsel unless the court awards some part thereof to other counsel for services in the case for the common benefit of all the parties; and execution may issue therefor as in other cases.
