

Ohio Revised Code

Section 5703.10 Place of office - branch offices.

Effective: December 4, 1973

Legislation: Senate Bill 174 - 110th General Assembly

The department of taxation shall keep its office in Columbus and shall provide suitable rooms, necessary office furniture, supplies, books, periodicals, and maps. All necessary expenses shall be audited and paid as are other expenses. The department may hold sessions at any place within the state.

The department may establish as many branch offices in different parts of the state as are convenient for the purpose of administering the laws which the department is required or authorized to administer. Offices, buildings, and rooms for such branch offices shall be rented by the department of administrative services in the manner provided by law.
