

Ohio Revised Code

Section 5803.03 Powers of representative.

Effective: September 12, 2008

Legislation: House Bill 499 - 127th General Assembly

To the extent there is no conflict of interest between the representative and the person represented or among those being represented with respect to a particular question or dispute, all of the following apply:

- (A) A guardian of the estate may represent and bind the estate that the guardian of the estate controls.
  - (B) A guardian of the person may represent and bind the ward if a guardian of the estate has not been appointed.
  - (C) An agent having authority to act with respect to the particular question or dispute may represent and bind the principal.
  - (D) Except as provided in division (F) of section 5801.10 of the Revised Code, a trustee may represent and bind the beneficiaries of the trust.
  - (E) A personal representative of a decedent's estate may represent and bind persons interested in the estate.
  - (F) A parent may represent and bind the parent's minor or unborn child if neither a guardian for the child's estate or a guardian of the person has been appointed. If a minor or unborn child is not represented by a parent under this division, another person may represent and bind the minor or unborn child under section 5803.04 of the Revised Code if the requirements of that section are met.
