

Ohio Revised Code

Section 5923.36 Limitation of actions.

Effective: September 1, 1967

Legislation: House Bill 734 - 107th General Assembly

Any civil proceedings brought against any member of the organized militia alleging an act of willful or wanton misconduct, which alleged act was performed when the member was under duty status pursuant to state authority at a time of public danger, shall be commenced within two years of the performance of such alleged act or be forever barred.
