

Ohio Revised Code

Section 707.12 Procedure in injunction cases.

Effective: December 1, 1967

Legislation: Senate Bill 221 - 107th General Assembly

When a petition is filed under section 707.11 of the Revised Code, the person filing it shall give notice by delivering a copy of the petition to the county recorder and the agent of the petitioners for the municipal corporation. On receiving such notice, the recorder shall transmit to the clerk of the court of common pleas all the papers relating to the matter of incorporation on file in the recorder's office, and in that event, no record of the papers shall be made by the recorder as provided in section 707.09 of the Revised Code until he receives a certificate from such clerk showing that the injunction has been denied.
