

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 101-7-09 Subpoenas.

Effective: May 18, 1995

(A) The committee may issue subpoenas to any person in the state compelling the attendance of witnesses and the production of relevant papers, books, accounts, and records.

(B) The committee shall issue any such subpoena upon the written requests of a party.

(C) Upon the motion and for good cause shown, the committee may quash any subpoena at any time prior to the hearing.

(D) Requests for subpoenas must be received by the committee not later than seven days before the date of the hearing.

(E) Subpoenas shall be served personally or by certified mail, return receipt requested, by the committee or its designee.
