

Ohio Administrative Code Rule 102-3-02 Advisory committee.

Effective: February 11, 2017

(A) The commission may establish an advisory committee to assist in performing its advisory opinion authority. The advisory committee will be composed of fewer than four commission members.

(B) The advisory committee may meet as needed to perform the following activities:

- (1) Review the advisory activity report reflecting recent advisory opinion requests;
- (2) Review requests for opinions to be answered by the commission;
- (3) Review drafts of opinions to be presented to the commission; and
- (4) Other duties as assigned by the commission or chair, or as determined by the committee.

(C) The advisory committee will not issue advisory opinions, but may approve content or format changes, as directed by the commission. Drafts reviewed and approved by the advisory committee are not commission advisory opinions until they are approved by the commission.
