

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 102-3-04 Advisory processes; telephone and electronic mail guidance.

Effective: February 26, 2012

---

(A) Within its resources, the commission may provide assistance to any person who requests guidance on questions related to any topic covered by Chapter 102. of the Revised Code or sections 2921.42 and 2921.43 of the Revised Code, including requests made through telephone calls or electronic mail.

(B) Guidance provided by the commission in a telephone call or electronic mail is not an advisory opinion, and does not provide the recipient or other similarly situated person with the immunity of a written advisory opinion described in section 102.08 of the Revised Code.

---