

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 102-5-03 Financial disclosure filing requirement; persons of equivalent rank to directors, assistant directors, deputy directors, or division chiefs of state administrative departments.

Effective: November 29, 2007

(A) Each director, assistant director, deputy director, division chief, and person of equivalent rank, of any administrative department of the state, must file a financial disclosure statement with the commission.

(B) Upon request by an administrative department of the state, the executive director of the commission, after reviewing the duties and responsibilities of a position of any employee or official of the department, may determine whether the employee or official holds a position of equivalent rank to director, assistant director, deputy director, or division chief, and is thereby required to file an annual financial disclosure statement. The executive director will report any determination made under this paragraph at the next commission meeting following such determination.

(C) At its discretion, or upon the request of a filer, the commission may review the decision of the executive director under paragraph (B) of this rule and change or modify that decision.
