

Ohio Administrative Code Rule 109:7-1-06 Definitions.

Effective: March 22, 2018

As used in division 109:7 of the Administrative Code, unless otherwise stated:

(A) "Rape Crisis Trust Fund" means the fund created in the state treasury, consisting of money paid into the fund pursuant to sections 307.515 and 311.172 of the Revised Code and any money appropriated to the fund by the general assembly or donated to the fund.

(B) "Battered Women's Shelter of Summit and Medina County" means specifically the shelter as well as the commercial kitchen facility located at 974 East Market street, Akron, Ohio.

(C) "Rape Crisis Program" means any of the following:

(1) The nonprofit state sexual assault coalition designated by the center for injury prevention and control of the federal centers for disease control and prevention;

(2) A victim witness assistance program operated by a prosecuting attorney; or

(3) A program operated by a government-based or nonprofit entity that provides a full continuum of services to victims of sexual assault, including hotlines, victim advocacy, and support services from the onset of the need for services through the completion of healing, that does not provide medical services, and that may refer victims to physicians for medical care but does not engage in or refer for services for which the use of genetic services funds is prohibited by section 3701.511 of the Revised Code.
