

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 111-1-05 Safe at home address confidentiality program participant certification and renewal.

Effective: March 28, 2022

At the expiration of the four year certification period, a program participant has a sixty-day grace period during which the participant whose certification has expired may renew such certification without losing status as a program participant.
