

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 111:1-3-12 Time for filing a continuation statement.

Effective: January 25, 2016

(A) First day permitted. The first day on which a continuation statement may be filed is the date corresponding to the date upon which the related financing statement would lapse, six months preceding the month in which such financing statement would lapse. If there is no such corresponding date, the first day on which a continuation may be filed is the last day of the sixth month preceding the month in which the financing statement would lapse. The foregoing rule is subject to the ability of the filing office to take delivery of the continuation statement when tendered and to rule 111:1-3-02 of the Administrative Code.

(B) Last day permitted. The last day on which a continuation statement may be filed is the date upon which the related financing statement lapses, subject to the ability of the filing office to take delivery of the continuation statement when tendered and to rule 111:1-3-02 of the Administrative Code. The time of filing of the continuation statement under rule 111:1-3-02 of the Administrative Code must be on or prior to such last day.
