

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 111:1-3-17 UCC information management system-general.

Effective: January 25, 2016

The filing office uses the UCC information management system to store, index, and retrieve information relating to financing statements. The UCC information management system includes these searchable indexes. The rules in this chapter describe the UCC information management system.
