

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 124-15-07 Certification of the record to court.

Effective: March 24, 2014

(A) The board shall certify only one copy of the record to the court of common pleas in any appeal.

(B) If a notice of appeal is filed in more than one court, the appealing party shall elect the court to which the board shall certify the record. The notice of election shall be filed with the board within ten days of the filing of the notice of appeal.

(C) If there is no election, the record shall be certified to the court in which the appeal was first filed. The board will only certify more than one record upon the request of the appealing party and upon that party's prepayment of all costs for the second and all subsequent records.
