

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 1301:3-10-04 Denial of a license or government certification to an out-of-state applicant.

Effective: July 12, 2024

An application submitted under rule 1301:3-10-03 of the Administrative Code may be denied for the following reasons:

- (A) The applicant has failed to meet any applicable licensing or work experience requirements necessary to obtain a license or government certification under Chapter 4796. of the Revised Code;
- (B) The applicant is not in good standing in either of the following:
 - (1) In all jurisdictions in which the applicant holds an out-of-state occupational license or government certification to practice the same profession, occupation, or occupational activity for which the applicant is applying in this state, if the applicant would be issued a license of government certification under section 4796.03 of the Revised Code; or
 - (2) With the private organization that issued the private certification, if the applicant would be issued a license or government certification under section 4796.04 of the Revised Code;
- (C) The applicant has surrendered or had revoked a license, out-of-state occupational license, or government certification because of negligence or intentional misconduct related to the applicant's work in the same profession, occupation, or occupational activity for which the applicant is applying in this state;
- (D) The applicant was subject to discipline by an entity that regulates a license, out-of-state occupational license, or government certification as provided in section 4796.13 of the Revised Code;
- (E) The applicant has been convicted of, found guilty pursuant to a judicial finding of, or pleaded guilty to a criminal offense that would otherwise disqualify the applicant for the license or government certification under the applicable law of this state governing the profession, occupation, or occupational activity for which the applicant is applying; or

The applicant has failed to pass an examination on this state's laws and rules governing the applicable profession, occupation, or occupational activity, if such an examination is required under applicable law.
