

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 1301:3-10-05 Restricted or limited license or government certifications.

Effective: July 12, 2024

(A) In order to issue a restricted or limited license or government certification under section 4796.10 of the Revised Code, a licensing authority shall do all of the following:

(1) Describe what restrictions or limitations are being placed upon the license or government certification;

(2) Indicate what period of time the restrictions or limitations apply to the license or government certification, including whether such restrictions or limitations apply to a license renewed under applicable law;

(3) Describe what reporting requirements apply to an individual issued a restricted or limited license or government certification to demonstrate compliance with any restrictions or limitations; and

(4) Maintain a list, available to the public, of restricted or limited license(s) or government certification(s) that have been issued by the licensing authority, including the following:

(a) The name of the licensee;

(b) The restrictions or limitations placed on the license or government certification; and

(c) The underlying offense the licensee was convicted of, had judicial finding of guilt of, or pleaded guilty to that forms the basis for issuance of the restricted or limited license.

(B) A restricted or limited license or government certification may be revoked, and restrictions or limitations may be modified, if a licensing authority determines that an individual issued a restricted or limited license or government certification has violated any restrictions or limitations imposed by the licensing authority.
