

Ohio Administrative Code Rule 145-1-33 Omitted contributions.

Effective: January 1, 2003

All payments made by employees and their employers for omitted contributions, completed before January 25, 1972, having been made in accordance with the board policy interpreting the statute in effect at the time of payment, are proper and are not subject to recomputation.
