

Ohio Administrative Code Rule 153:1-5-01 Electronic Advertising.

Effective: February 2, 2012

(A) For the purposes of this chapter, the following terms shall have the meaning given them in section 9.33 of the Revised Code: construction manager, construction manager at risk, and public authority.

(B) This rule applies only to a construction manager or a construction manager at risk project.

(C) In addition to the requirements set forth in section 9.331 of the Revised Code, a public authority planning to employ construction manager or construction manager at risk services may advertise electronically by using one or more of the following:

(1) Placing an advertisement on the website of the newspaper of general circulation in the county where the contract is to be performed;

(2) Placing an advertisement on the state public notification website;

(3) Placing an advertisement on its own official website or on other non-official websites, such as appropriate trade association websites.

(D) A public authority may utilize reasonable and available means to electronically advertise to members of diversity and inclusion programs required by the public authority or by applicable law.

(E) The content of an electronic advertisement may indicate where an interested party may find a full description of the project and information on how to submit a proposal.
