

Ohio Administrative Code Rule 3301-16-06 Retaking end-of-course examinations.

Effective: July 29, 2016

(A) A student, who entered ninth grade for the first time on or after July 1, 2014, may retake any end-of-course examination prescribed under division (B)(2) of section 3301.0712 of the Revised Code during the student's academic career. The student may retake an exam during testing window(s) designated by the department of education.

(B) If a student does not take an end-of-course examination on the scheduled administration date, the department of education shall make available to the student one of the following at a later time in the student's academic career:

(1) The examination for which the student was absent; or

(2) A substantially similar examination. A substantially similar examination includes a different version of the state end of course test in the same subject area.
