

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 3335-3-02 Executive vice president and provost.

Effective: September 20, 2022

(A) The executive vice president and provost shall be the chief operating officer of the university. Under the direction of the president, the executive vice president and provost is responsible for oversight of all academic programs, instructional affairs and faculty affairs of the university. Duties, authority and rights are as specified in paragraph (B) of rule 3335-1-03 of the Administrative Code.

(B) Any responsibility of the executive vice president and provost may be delegated to any other member of the faculty or staff of the university, subject to any university limitations. The executive vice president and provost will retain final authority and responsibility for operations of the university. Delegation of major areas shall be in writing to the president before implementation.

(C) The executive vice president and provost shall designate a senior management council. The council shall provide advice to the provost, discuss, deliberate and serve as the primary decision-making body on academic or university policies and other roles as the provost shall determine. The provost shall chair a council of deans as prescribed in rule 3335-3-23 of the Administrative Code.
