(B) Duties and responsibilities.

(1) Develop, subject to the general authority of the president and the board of trustees, policies governing intercollegiate athletics, as the agent of the senate. The senate may hold university policies in review.

(a) University policies shall guide the administration of the program of intercollegiate athletics by the director of athletics, but the athletic council shall not serve in an administrative or executive capacity.

(b) It will consider and establish policy on such matters as the income and expenditures budget, the schedules for seasonal and post-seasonal play in relation to the effect upon the welfare of the athletes, grants and other financial aid to athletes, eligibility of athletes, student grievance procedures and sportsmanship policies related to athletics, awards to athletes, recommended ticket prices, ticket distribution, and public and campus relations of the athletic program.

(c) It will consider and establish standing committees, an executive committee, and ad hoc committees to consider athletic matters raised by any member of the university community.

(d) Its recommendations and decisions on policy shall be reported to the senate and to the department of athletics.

(2) Participate with the president in the selection of the FAR. The FAR shall provide advice and oversight for the intercollegiate athletics program at Ohio state and represent the university and its faculty to the Big Ten conference and the NCAA. The FAR also shall participate in the assurance of academic integrity of the athletics program; monitor the student-athlete experience; participate in the assurance of institutional compliance with NCAA and Big Ten conference regulations; and serve as the faculty advisor to the president and the director of athletics concerning the administration of the collegiate athletics program.

(a) When selecting a new FAR, the athletic council shall prepare a list of no fewer than two tenured faculty members who do not hold any position in the athletics department from which the president shall select the FAR.

(b) Eighteen months before the June thirtieth end of the FAR final term, the chair of the athletic council shall appoint a nominating committee which shall inform the university community about the position of FAR and invite applications and nominations. Brief recommendations in writing that state the candidate's qualifications for the position are submitted to the nominating committee by any member of the university community. Applications and nominations shall be due in accordance with a schedule established by the nominating committee. Every reasonable effort shall be made to present qualified candidates for vote by the athletic council on or before June first.

(c) Final approval of the names submitted to the president shall be made by a two-thirds majority of the voting membership of the athletic council. The list shall be presented to the president and every reasonable effort shall be made to appoint the FAR-elect on or before July first to allow one year of shadowing and transition between FAR-elect and incumbent. The FAR-elect takes office one year after appointment on July first.

(d) The FAR-elect shall shadow the incumbent FAR on selection and attend all meetings without voting rights until their respective terms begin and end on July first.

(e) The FAR term is four years beginning July first. Reappointment for no more than two additional four-year terms is permissible. If an incumbent FAR is eligible for and desires reappointment, at least eighteen months prior to expiration of the term the athletic council shall complete a review of the incumbent's performance. If two-thirds of voting members are in favor of reappointment and the president concurs the FAR shall be reappointed. Otherwise the athletic council shall immediately prepare a list for the president following paragraphs (B)(2)(a) to (B)(2)(d) of this rule.

(f) The FAR is an ex-officio non-voting member of the athletic council. The chair of the athletic council or faculty designee shall serve as the FAR with full voting privileges at NCAA, Big Ten, and other conference meetings if the FAR is unavailable.

(g) In the event that the FAR does not complete a full term the FAR-elect shall complete the term. The completion of a term does not constitute a four-year term for purposes of the three-term limit in paragraph (B)(2)(e) of this rule. If there is no FAR-elect the chair of the athletic council or designee shall serve as the interim FAR until the appointment of a FAR-elect. Upon notice of a vacancy the athletic council shall immediately prepare a list for the president following paragraphs (B)(2)(a) to (B)(2)(d) of this rule.

(1) Reports by the athletic council to the president, other than those made through the senate, shall be made through the director of athletics.
