

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 3335-8-13 Class rosters.

Effective: July 26, 2004

Instructors shall make their class rosters solely from the rosters issued by the office of the university registrar, except that each department or school is authorized to change the hour assignment of a student for courses offered in more than one section. The department or school shall notify the office of the university registrar of all such changes.
