

Ohio Administrative Code Rule 3335-8-19 Course examinations.

Effective: June 25, 2016

(A) Each course as defined in rule 3335-8-01 of the Administrative Code will have a syllabus to be provided to each student at the start of the term explaining how the student's performance will be assessed.

(B) By the close of each course as defined in rule 3335-8-01 of the Administrative Code, the student's performance relative to the stated course objectives will be assessed, the method of assessment to be determined by the instructor or supervisor of the course.

(C) Written in-class examinations given at the end of the term that are comprehensive in nature should be given only during the final exam period and administered pursuant to rule 3335-8-20 of the Administrative Code. Written in-class examinations allowed during the last week of classes shall not exceed the scale, scope, duration and percent of grade of other examinations given in that class during the term, nor exceed thirty per cent of the final course grade unless approved by the unit head. All examinations, papers and projects set for the last week of classes in a semester must be clearly assigned and scheduled in the instructors syllabus. In a course where a final examination is the only written examination given during the term, that examination may not be given during the last week of classes, and must be scheduled during the final examination period and administered pursuant to rule 3335-8-20 of the Administrative Code.
