

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 3342-3-01.9 Administrative policy regarding academic probation.

Effective: March 1, 2015

---

(A) Academic probation is a means of informing a student that his or her academic performance or progress is unsatisfactory while there may still be time for remedy.

(B) Academic probation is imposed by the academic deans, from whom specifics are available. Such probation is usually accompanied by restrictions in the number of credit hours which may be attempted in any given term and specifications as to the grade average necessary for a student to be allowed to continue for another term.

---