

Ohio Administrative Code Rule 3344-85-01 Basic policy.

Effective: February 24, 1997

It is the policy of the university to provide students with an opportunity to seek redress of grievance, modifications of university policies, or amendments of university rules and regulations. No academic or disciplinary action shall result against any student who has filed a grievance in good faith in accordance with the procedures set forth in Chapter 3344-85 of the Administrative Code. In an effort to assist students in resolving their grievances, the university has established the following student grievance board and process.
