

Ohio Administrative Code Rule 3357:15-12-05 Chain of command.

Effective: March 11, 2016

In the absence of the president, administrators at the college will assume executive authority according to the chain of command: provost and chief academic officer; vice president for business and finance; and vice president for enrollment management, student services and administration.
