

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 3357:15-16-09 COLLEGE DISCRETIONARY FUND.

Effective: February 23, 2015

The board of trustees established the college discretionary fund on June 20, 1984 (page 1015) to be used at the president's discretion for supporting activities which serve to promote the interest of Stark state college. The fund may be used for the following suggested purposes or any purpose which supports the interest of the college. Some examples are:

- (A) To receive gifts or donations from individuals, agencies, firms, or other groups.
 - (B) To support functions of the board of trustees.
 - (C) To support the activities of the president in fostering the interest of Stark state college excluding direct political contributions.
 - (D) To support approved faculty and staff functions.
 - (E) To support approved faculty and staff travel, entertainment, and training.
-