

Ohio Administrative Code

Rule 3357:15-18-04 Non-credential-seeking citizens 60 and older.

Effective: July 14, 2016

To encourage and promote life-long learning experiences for older citizens, all instructional and general fees are waived for Ohio residents sixty years of age or older who take credit classes as a non-credential-seeking student. Such citizens are free to enroll in any section or course where there may be less than the maximum number of regular students in a class.
