

Ohio Administrative Code Rule 3358:3-1-03 The President.

Effective: March 16, 2015

The president is the chief executive officer and professional advisor of the board. The president interprets and implements the boards policies and regulations in their application to the various operations and personnel matters of the college. The president has responsibility and authority necessary to provide professional leadership and administrative direction for the various operations and for various personnel groups as outlined in the approved organizational flowchart. The president may delegate any authority or responsibility to others but retains the final responsibility for the results of such delegation. The president is responsible for making personnel decisions, including but not limited to hiring, firing, disciplining and setting the compensation for various individual college personnel. The president may change varying personnel assignments to carry out the presidents responsibilities to the board for the overall leadership of the college. The president is the single officer reporting directly to the board.
